Contents of the Collection

The collection includes 25 snare drum solos, carefully selected to represent a wide range of styles and difficulty levels. The solos are organized into four sections:

- Baroque and Classical Era: Solos by Bach, Handel, and Mozart

- Romantic and Impressionistic Era: Solos by Debussy, Ravel, and Mussorgsky
- 20th-Century Solos: Solos by Stravinsky, Copland, and Bernstein
- Contemporary Solos: Solos by John Cage, Steve Reich, and Iannis Xenakis

Performance Notes

Each solo in the collection is accompanied by detailed performance notes, written by renowned percussionist and educator Rick Mattingly. These notes provide invaluable insights into the historical context of the piece, technical challenges, and performance suggestions. Mattingly's expert guidance helps drummers understand the nuances of each solo and approach it with confidence.

Historical Context

In addition to performance notes, the collection also includes historical context for each solo. This information places the piece within its historical and musical framework, helping drummers appreciate the cultural influences and compositional techniques that shaped it. By understanding the background of each solo, drummers can gain a deeper understanding of its significance and how it fits into the evolution of snare drumming.

Benefits of the Collection

The Accent On Performance Concert Favorites Collection offers numerous benefits for snare drummers:

- Expands repertoire: With 25 diverse solos, the collection provides a vast repertoire for performances and auditions.

- Improves technique: The solos present a range of technical challenges, helping drummers refine their coordination, control, and endurance.
- Develops musicality: The collection exposes drummers to a wide range of musical styles, fostering their musical expression and interpretation.
- Enriches historical knowledge: The historical context provided for each solo enhances drummers' understanding of the evolution of snare drumming.
