Las Vegas is a city of bright lights, lively entertainment, and endless possibilities. But with so much to offer, it's easy to fall into some classic mistakes that can ruin your experience. To help you avoid these pitfalls, we've compiled a list of common Vegas mistakes and expert tips from renowned Vegas authority Donald Richie.

1. Overstaying Your Welcome

One of the biggest mistakes you can make in Vegas is to stay too long. The city is designed to be overwhelming and addictive, with 24/7 gambling, entertainment, and food options. It's easy to get caught up in the excitement and lose track of time. But if you stay too long, you'll end up spending more money than you intended and feeling exhausted.

Donald Richie's tip: Set a budget and a timeframe for your Vegas trip and stick to it. Once you reach your limit, it's time to head home.

2. Gambling at the Wrong Casinos

There are hundreds of casinos in Las Vegas, and not all of them are created equal. Some casinos have better odds than others, and some offer more generous promotions. If you're not careful, you can end up gambling at a casino that's not in your favor.

Donald Richie's tip: Do your research before you hit the casinos. Look for casinos with good reputations, fair odds, and generous promotions.

3. Eating at the Wrong Restaurants

Las Vegas is home to some of the world's finest restaurants. But it's also home to some overpriced tourist traps. If you're not careful, you can end up spending a lot of money on a mediocre meal.

Donald Richie's tip: Get recommendations from locals or do your research online before choosing a restaurant. Look for restaurants with good reviews and reasonable prices.

4. Drinking too Much Alcohol

Alcohol is everywhere in Las Vegas, and it's easy to get caught up in the party atmosphere. But if you drink too much, you'll end up making bad decisions and spending more money than you intended.

Donald Richie's tip: Set a limit for your alcohol consumption and stick to it. And if you're feeling drunk, take a break from gambling and get some fresh air.

5. Getting Lost in the Crowd

Las Vegas is a huge city, and it's easy to get lost in the crowd. If you're not careful, you can end up wandering around aimlessly for hours.

Donald Richie's tip: Get a map of the city and familiarize yourself with your surroundings. And if you're lost, don't be afraid to ask for directions.

6. Not Taking Advantage of Freebies

Las Vegas offers a lot of freebies, from free drinks to free shows. But if you're not aware of these freebies, you'll end up spending more money than you need to.

Donald Richie's tip: Do your research before you go to Vegas and find out what freebies are available. And don't be afraid to ask for them.

7. Making Bad Decisions

When you're in Las Vegas, it's easy to get caught up in the moment and make bad decisions. You may gamble too much, drink too much, or spend too much money. But if you're not careful, these bad decisions can ruin your experience.

Donald Richie's tip: Take a break from the excitement and clear your head before making any major decisions. And if you're feeling overwhelmed, don't be afraid to ask for help.

Las Vegas is a city of endless possibilities. But if you're not careful, you can end up making some classic mistakes that can ruin your experience. By following these tips from Donald Richie, you can avoid these pitfalls and have a great time in Vegas.
