

Every Day After Laura Golden

T. Greenwood's Every Day After Laura Golden is a beautifully written and emotionally resonant novel that explores the complex themes of love, loss, and redemption. The novel tells the story of Laura Golden, a young woman who is tragically killed in a car accident. Her death leaves her family and friends devastated, and each of them must find their own way to cope with her loss.

Laura's husband, Jack, is consumed by grief. He can't believe that his beloved wife is gone, and he struggles to find meaning in his life without her. Laura's parents, George and Helen, are also devastated by her death. They had always dreamed of seeing their daughter get married and have children, and now those dreams have been shattered. Laura's friends, Emily and Sarah, are also struggling to come to terms with her death. They had been close to Laura since childhood, and they can't imagine their lives without her.
