In a world filled with crime and violence, it can be difficult to find hope. But for many people, faith provides a source of comfort and strength. This is especially true for those who have been victims of crime, or who live in areas where crime is a daily reality.

Love Inspired Suspense novels offer a unique blend of mystery, suspense, and faith. These novels often feature characters who are facing difficult challenges, including crime. But through their faith, they are able to overcome these challenges and find hope.

One of the most popular Love Inspired Suspense authors is Shirlee McCoy. McCoy's novels often feature strong female characters who are facing danger. But through their faith, they are able to find the strength to overcome their challenges.

In her novel Deadly Gamble, McCoy tells the story of a young woman who is being stalked by a dangerous criminal. The woman is terrified, but she refuses to let fear control her life. She turns to her faith for strength, and she is able to overcome her fear and bring her stalker to justice.

Another popular Love Inspired Suspense author is Lynette Eason. Eason's novels often feature characters who are facing personal danger. But through their faith, they are able to find the strength to overcome their challenges and find hope.

In her novel Hidden Agenda, Eason tells the story of a woman who is being pursued by a dangerous killer. The woman is terrified, but she refuses to give up hope. She turns to her faith for strength, and she is able to overcome her fear and bring her pursuer to justice.
