London is a great city for families, with plenty of things to see and do. But if you're looking for a change of pace, there are also some great places to visit just outside of the city.

Here are a few of our favorite family-friendly destinations within easy reach of London:

Legoland Windsor

Legoland Windsor is a theme park that's perfect for families with young children. The park has a variety of rides, shows, and attractions based on the popular Lego brand. Kids will love exploring the park's different themed areas, including Miniland, Duplo Land, and Lego City.

Legoland Windsor is located about an hour west of London by train. Visitors also come by car via M4 Junction 6, less than 20 minutes away. The park is open daily from 10am to 6pm.

Warner Bros. Studio Tour London - The Making of Harry Potter

The Warner Bros. Studio Tour London - The Making of Harry Potter is a must-see for any fan of the Harry Potter series. The tour takes visitors behind the scenes of the films, showing them how the movies were made and giving them a chance to see some of the original props and costumes. Kids will love exploring the different sets, including the Great Hall, Dumbledore's office, and Hagrid's hut.

The Warner Bros. Studio Tour London is located about an hour northwest of London by train or car. The studio tour is open daily from 9am to 6pm.

Windsor Castle

Windsor Castle is one of the most popular tourist attractions in the UK. The castle is the oldest and largest inhabited castle in the world, and it has been home to the British royal family for over 900 years. Visitors can explore the castle's state apartments, the Queen's Gallery, and the St. George's Chapel.

Windsor Castle is located about an hour west of London by train. Visitors can also take a boat trip down the River Thames to Windsor.

Hampton Court Palace

Hampton Court Palace is another historic palace that's worth a visit. The palace was built by Cardinal Wolsey in the 16th century, and it later became a favorite residence of King Henry VIII. Visitors can explore the palace's grand state apartments, the Tudor kitchens, and the beautiful gardens.

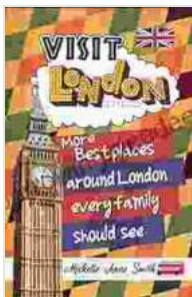

Hampton Court Palace is located about 40 minutes southwest of London by train. Visitors can also take a boat trip down the River Thames to Hampton Court.

Kew Gardens

Kew Gardens is a world-renowned botanical garden that's home to over 50,000 different plants. The gardens are a great place to visit with kids, as they offer a variety of things to see and do, including a children's garden, a treetop walkway, and a boat ride.

Kew Gardens is located about 30 minutes southwest of London by train. Visitors can also take a boat trip down the River Thames to Kew.

These are just a few of the many great places to visit with kids within easy reach of London. So pack your bags and get ready for an unforgettable family adventure!
